PROFESSIONAL MOBILITY INFORMATION SHEET

Eligibility to Apply

- Current, serving police officer in an Australian policing jurisdiction or the New Zealand Police
- One year full-time service in your jurisdiction (not including any periods of probation)
- Eligibility to meet the standards for a Baseline National Security Clearance
- Current CPR qualification
- Ability to swim 100m without assistance

Application Process

Applicants that satisfy the eligibility criteria can submit an application at any time and will be assessed on a case-by-case basis by emailing this completed application form and supporting documents to:

professionalmobility@police.nsw.gov.au

Upon successfully completing this application process you will be offered a position in the next available Professional Mobility Program class. The commencement dates for these classes are on the NSW Police Recruitment website.

Placement & Tenure

Placement is subject to the operational needs and requirements of the NSW Police Force. You should be aware that you will be required to serve a minimum of three (3) years at your placement location before you can seek transfer to other locations within the NSWPF.

You will be asked to nominate five (5) locations where you would like to be placed.

You will be able to supply a report detailing any specific information you would like us to consider when determining your placement location.

Applicants may, depending on previous experience and specialist qualifications, seek placement into specialist areas. These specialist placement requests will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and will be dependent on organisational need. Please be aware that Criminal Investigation (Detectives) and Traffic (Highway Patrol) are not considered as specialist areas for this program.

We will notify you of where we intend to place you, and you will need to accept that placement, BEFORE you will be required to commit to the physical and medical testing and any costs thereby associated.

Pay

We will look at your years of service in your current jurisdiction and we will determine where you would fall in the NSW Non-Commissioned Police Officers pay scale.

We will notify you of the determination regarding your level of pay, and you will need to accept that determination, BEFORE you will be required to commit to the physical and medical testing and any costs thereby associated.

Vetting / Screening

We will conduct an assortment of vetting checks including, but not limited to:

- Criminal and traffic history
- Current employment history (including complaint / HR / prior duty-related injuries / sick leave review)
- Contacting current Manager and Supervisors

Fitness, Psychometric & Medical Testing and Assessment

Fitness & Psychometric Testing

Fitness testing and psychometric assessment will be conducted at our Sydney testing venue on the same day and you should expect to travel to Sydney for that testing.

Applicants are responsible for any financial expenses incurred as a result of attending and participating in the fitness testing and psychometric assessment day.

You will be required to pass the following minimum fitness testing components:

- 90 second prone bridge (on hands)
- 30cm vertical jump
- 25 push-ups (on toes)
- Illinois Agility Course under 20 seconds
- 35kg handgrip strength on both hands
- 7.1 on the 20m beep test

Videos of our fitness tests can be found on the NSW Police Recruitment website.

The results of your psychometric assessment will be reviewed by the NSW Police Psychology Unit and you may be required to undertake a further interview with them. Should this be required we will endeavour to complete that in an online environment.

Medical Testing

You will be required to complete a medical assessment through our independent medical provider Unified Healthcare Group (UHG) and you will be advised when you may book this assessment.

Applicants from New Zealand will complete their medical in Sydney on a business day adjacent to your fitness testing day. We will book that assessment on your behalf and advise you of the date, time and location (either Sydney CBD or Parramatta).

Applicants from Australia will be able to book and complete the medical assessment at a UHG affiliated clinic within your own State/Territory. However, should you wish to complete it in Sydney we can make that arrangement for you in the same way that we will for New Zealand applicants.

If you have any questions regarding the NSW Police medical standards please contact UHG on 1300 144 143.

Applicants are responsible for any financial expense incurred whilst participating in the initial medical assessment and for obtaining any specialist or other medical reports that you are requested to supply.

Training Program

The training for the Professional Mobility Program will occur over a 12-week period at the NSW Police Academy in Goulburn, NSW. Your accommodation and meals will be provided during your training.

Your training will cover NSW legislation, NSW Police Force systems and processes, weapons and defensive tactics, driving and the NSW Safe Driver Policy.

Employment During Training

During the training course you will be employed as a Student Police Officer which is a temporary-full time civilian position with the NSW Police Force.

As a student police officer you will be paid $1,360 per week, plus superannuation and approximately $380 in Award-based allowances.

As an employee of the NSW Police Force you will not be able to hold secondary employment without express permission, which is highly unlikely to be granted.

Attestation / Swearing In

Upon successfully completing the Professional Mobility Program training course you will be sworn in as a NSW Police Officer at an Attestation Parade. That parade will be held in Sydney and families will be welcome to attend.

Probation Period

Upon Attestation you will commence duties as a NSW Police Officer.

You will be subject to a period of probation that will be no less than 6 months in duration. Your Commander may seek to extend your period of probation should your performance not be to a satisfactory standard.

During your probation period you will be referred to as a Probationary Constable and you will wear the rank epaulettes of a probationary constable.

You should be aware that as a Probationary Constable you are subject to the conditions of s80(3) of the Police Act 1990 (NSW) in that the Commissioner of the NSW Police Force may dismiss you at any time during this period without giving reason.

Confirmation

After satisfactory completion of your probation period you will be required to pass the same physical fitness assessment and a NSW Police Force medical assessment to be eligible for confirmation.

Once confirmed, you will be able to wear the rank epaulettes appropriate to your rank and will be able to be referred to as a Constable or Senior Constable as appropriate.

Designations / Specialist Qualifications

Designations and specialist qualifications will not be automatically recognised and should not be an assumption that designations or qualifications will be recognised.

Should you wish you have a specific designation or qualification recognised you will be able to make an application which will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Such assessments may be lengthy as skill matching or other such investigations of course content/curriculum may need to take place between the NSW Police Force and your previous jurisdiction.

Relocation Expenses

You are expected to source your own accommodation in NSW.

Upon successful completion of the Professional Mobility Program training course the NSW Police Force will facilitate, through our contractors, your move from your current place of residence to your new home in NSW.

We will cover up to $20,000 for this relocation.

Should the total for your relocation (due to the extent of your furniture/possessions etc being moved) exceed that $20,000 sum you will be liable for the remaining balance.

Please be aware that should you decide to move yourself or arrange your own moving company you will not be eligible to seek re-imbursment from us.

Enquiries and Further Information

If you have any questions not covered or would like any further information please contact the Professional Mobility Officer at NSW Police Force Recruitment on 02 8286 4736 or via email:

K OPERATIONAL PLACEMENT

Generally, all successful officers under the Professional Mobility Program will be placed at a Police Area Command or Police District where you will be performing General Duties.

If you hold, and can demonstrate, sufficient skill and experience you may apply for placement into a Specialist Command.

For the purposes of the Professional Mobility Program, a Specialist Command does not include Criminal Investigation (Detectives) or Traffic & Highway Patrol

You are encouraged to contact the Professional Mobility officer to discuss your circumstances if you are considering applying for a Specialist Command.

You can reach the Professional Mobility officer on (02) 8286 4736 or via professionalmobility@police.nsw.gov.au

You are reminded that:

"The NSWPF reserves the right to deploy applicants to any location within NSW, however consideration may be given to special circumstances of applicants, weighed against the operational needs of the NSWPF."

Please nominate five (5) locations at which you would like to be stationed if your application is successful. Please note - there is no guarantee that you will be placed at one of those locations.
