

FIREARMS REGISTRY

OFFICIAL SAFARI TOUR PERMIT

This fact sheet provides information on the requirements for obtaining a Safari Tour Permit - clause 65 of the Firearms Regulation 2017.

Persons wishing to operate safari tours in NSW must obtain a permit authorising possession and use of firearms for this activity.

What does a Safari Tour Permit authorise?

This permit authorises the possession and use of category A and B firearms by the permit holder only for the purpose of operating organised safari tours in NSW on land for which prior approval from the land owner has been obtained.

All participants must hold:

- A NSW Category A or B firearms licence issued for the genuine reason of Recreational Hunting/Vermin Control or the equivalent interstate licence, OR
- A NSW issued Minor's Firearm Training Permit or the interstate equivalent, OR
- A Safari/Hunting Participation Permit. The Safari/Hunting Participation Permit will only be issued to
- overseas visitors over the age of 18 years.

Separate permits are required for, and issued by, each State and Territory of Australia.

Who can apply for this type of permit?

This permit can be issued to an individual or a business. Employees of the business may also be authorised by this permit.

How much will my permit cost & what is the term of the permit?

The prescribed fee for this permit is $500. The permit will be issued for a maximum term of 5 years.

Individual Permit - payment is made at a Service NSW or RMS office when your photo permit is produced.

Business Permit - payment must accompany the application. You may pay by cheque or money order made payable to NSW Police Force or by filling out the credit card details on the reverse of the application form.

On what land can the safari tour operate?

An application for a Safari Tour Permit must be accompanied by evidence that the applicant has permission from the owner of any land on which hunting activities are proposed to be carried out under the authority of the permit.

Do I need to do anything prior to lodging my application?

Yes. If you have never held a firearms licence or permit in NSW, or you do not currently hold an equivalent issued firearms licence or permit interstate, you are required to complete a firearm safety training course for longarms. Include the completed certificate with your permit application. For training providers contact:

- The Firearms Safety Training Council - 02 9486 3077,
- The Sporting Shooters Association of Australia (SSAA) – 1300 746 683,
- Department of Primary Industries, Game Licensing Unit - 02 6391 3750,
- or your nearest firearms club or the NSW Firearms Registry.

Where can I find more information?

The information provided in the fact sheet is for general guidance only. Applicants and licensees should familiarise themselves with the Firearms Act 1996 and the associated Regulation, which are available on the NSW Legislation website – www.legislation.nsw.gov.au
